Jonas Koro - AI Filmmaker

Jonas Koroschetz is a Digital Artist born in Frankfurt, Germany.
He has been working with digital art from an early age, building a strong foundation in 3D, VFX and procedural workflows. At the end of 2021, he expanded his practice into machine learning and generative AI, combining classical digital craftsmanship with emerging AI technologies.

Today, he focuses on cinematic visual development, AI-driven production pipelines and the intersection of art, technology and storytelling, always exploring how new tools can meaningfully enhance creative work. His fascination with technology continuously drives him to evolve, experiment and reinvent himself with every new wave of innovation.
