Basha de Bruijn - Director

Basha is an Amsterdam-based director. She always tells the tale through an emotive lens, finding inspiration through stories steeped in love, relationships, and real life. Whatever the brief, casting is always of utmost importance; with her characters displaying a realness and relatability that enable the audience to forge meaningful connections.

Basha is an autodidact, with more than 10 years of experience; she continues to find new ways to tell such stories rich in beauty, femininity, and sensitivity.
